Abolitionist
Teaching

Abolitionist teaching “is the practice of working in solidarity with communities of color or drawing on the imagination, creativity, refusal, (re)membering, visionary thinking, healing, rebellious spirit, boldness, determination, and subversiveness of abolitionists to eradicate injustice in and outside of schools.” (p. 2)

Dr. Bettina Love

What does it look like for historically marginalized students to feel seen, heard and valued in your learning space?

Does your curriculum reflect diverse ideas, perspectives and complete histories?

How to Build

When taking the anti-racist approach to how you construct learning first look at these things...
